Mames of Mary

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary of Fatima - based on the Marian apparitions reported in 1917 by three shepherd children at the Cova da Iria in Fátima Portugal urging us to offer up daily sacrifices and pray the Rosary.

Our Lady of Lourdes - OR - The Immaculate Conception -

Mary revealed herself to Bernadette at a grotto in Lourdes, France, calling herself the Immaculate Conception (referring to how God protected Mary by allowing her to be conceived without original sin); the spring water there has become known for its healing properties.

Our Lady of Grace - Mary, who is "full of grace," is pictured on the Miraculous Medal with rays coming forth from her representing the graces that God sends to us through Mary, but she notes that the areas where rays are missing are because we forget to ask for her help.

Our Lady of Sorrows - Mary experienced intense suffering and grief during the seven sorrows, including the moments of Jesus' passion and death, but each new suffering was received with courage, love, and trust.

Queen of Families - This title flows naturally from the fact that Mary is the Mother of the Church, and the family is the smallest cell of the Church. It helps us to relate to Mary as a person who has a family, as a mother, and as

Queen of Peace - She is mother of the "Prince of Peace" who reconciled heaven and earth. She was standing at the foot of the cross where Christ merited peace for the whole world. At Pentecost Mary prayed for the Spirit of peace. She is our intercessor with God to obtain the spirit of love, unity and reconciliation.

Our Lady of Guadalupe - the patroness of the Americas. She appeared to an Aztec man, St. Juan Diego, in Mexico in December of 1531. Her appearance and the image she placed on Juan Diego's cloak helped many Aztecs be converted to the faith.

Undoer of Knots - St. Irenaeus said, "The knot of Eve's disobedience was untied by the obedience of Mary." This devotion has grown as a way to honor Mary's intercession on our behalf, undoing the "knots" of our lives.
